The holiday parties are over, but there is no reason that we shouldn't continue wearing fabulous winter fashion. It is easy to grab the same old, uninspiring sweater day after day when it's cold outside. Now is the time to take advantage of all this season has to offer with metallic prints, bold colors, patent leather, rich knits and so much more. Whether you are ultra-glamorous or would prefer a comfortable ensemble, there are a few secret weapons for staying gorgeous through the winter months. You can stay toasty and be stylish with these strategic wardrobe updates.

Here are a few simple details and a little shine that will leave you wishing for snow.

Colors like this will hold their own when you pair them with soft knits, silky dresses, jeans and coats. Streets Ahead yellow belt, Cotton Mill.

Scarves add personality and flair to any outfit. Escape from the sea of black by adding a bit of eye-catching color around your face. Preston & York lilac cashmere gloves and scarf, Dillard's.

All eyes will be on you when you wear these glamorous boots and elegant gloves. Antonio Melani Black suede boots, Jessica Simpson short herringbone boots, Preston & York fur gloves, Dillard's.

Everyday glamorous! Bright dresses have the ability to bring you out of any winter gloominess you might be feeling. Choose to be awe-inspiring when you pair this ABS by Allen Schwartz Turquoise dress with a black HOBLO International belt to give you a more womanly silhouette, along with black tights and heels for a polished yet fun look. Cotton Mill.

You will look unforgettable and show off your curves when you give this Hanii Y traditional winter vest a stylish twist. The streamlined, formfitting cut will keep you warm without weighing you down. H. Audrey Boutique.

Fashion Rut?

▲ Stepping into this is as simple as throwing on your favorite pair of jeans. Pair this Trina Turk Los Angeles dress with boots and a coat for the perfect look this season. Cotton Mill.

▲ With so many coat trends out there, from essential cold weather wear to statement coats, you really can't go wrong unless you choose to be boring! It's likely your biggest purchase of the season, so be willing to go on a few shopping trips to find the perfect one—after all, it's the one piece you'll wear almost every day this season. Loeffler Randall taupe coat, H. Audrey Boutique.

From carryalls to clutches, you will look sensational toting one of these bags. With all of the rich, metallic textures, deep jewel tones, buckles, chains and edgy embellishments, you have no excuse to be as dull as the weather. GoldenBlum patent leather satchel, Cotton Mill; clutches, loreinyc.com. ▼

◀ In the winter? Absolutely! Be bold and confident in the new graphic prints this season! Nanette Lepore top and pants. Cotton Mill.

Casual chic at its best. This season's flats are both comfortable and fashion-forward. Spice up wintry days with metallic shades, funky designs and unconventional fabrics. Bronze flats, Dillard's. ▼

▼ One of the quickest and most successful ways to achieve a stylish appearance is with a dazzling pair of heels. You can always count on them to make you look taller, slimmer and sexier, regardless of the chill in the air. Michael Kors grey and black heels and Calvin Klein red patent leather and suede heels, Dillard's.

▶ Nothing is cozier than this luxurious knit. Between the feminine cut and well-placed metal decoration, this plum cardigan by Mayle is striking when simply worn over jeans and boots. H. Audrey Boutique.
